

Opportunities for Connection

By sponsoring the base costs for running the theater and producing shows, you strengthen the hub of connection for everything we create; great plays, life-altering classes, musical celebrations and a united, stronger artistic community.

Productions – Connect to the Art!

Theater 150's mission is to plug our audiences, students, and extended community into the highest quality professional experiences at affordable prices. The professional theater at the heart of everything we do needs to be nurtured.
